

Where the short-circuit becomes visible depends on the topology

Dot = median SDR over recordings, bar = interquartile range. $SDR = |\text{relative change under fault}| \div 95\text{th percentile of } |\text{relative change with no fault}|$ (225 recordings per machine).

